Nomination Procedures

The Award

The Kevin O'Donnell Distinguished Friend of Korea Award recognizes individuals or organizations distinguished by their accomplishments that are consistent with the overarching mission of Friends of Korea: to foster cultural awareness and friendship between Americans and Koreans. The award is a lasting tribute to the extraordinary contributions made by Kevin O'Donnell, the first U.S. Peace Corps country director in Korea and the fourth director of the Peace Corps. For more information, see the FOK website.

Award Criteria

The nominee for the Kevin O'Donnell Distinguished Friend of Korea Award should have contributed significantly in fostering cultural awareness and friendship between Americans and Koreans in public service, business, religion, education, government or the arts. When making your nomination, please provide a statement describing how the nominee meets the award criteria, as described below.

How to nominate

Any Friend of Korea may recommend recipients for this recognition. You may not nominate yourself or a relative for this award. Membership in Friends of Korea is not required.
